SUSQUEHANNA ART MUSEUM

AT THE MARTY AND TOM PHILIPS FAMILY ART CENTER

SUSQUEHANNA ART MUSEUM ANNOUNCES ACCESS PROGRAM FOR LOW-INCOME FAMILIES

Harrisburg, PA – Susquehanna Art Museum is a proud new member of the Museums for All initiative! Museums for All is a signature access program of the Institute of Museum and Library Services, administered by the Association of Children’s Museums, to encourage people of all backgrounds to visit museums regularly and build lifelong museum-going habits. The program provides free admission to Susquehanna Art Museum to those receiving food assistance (SNAP) benefits. The presentation of a SNAP Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) card allows for free admission for up to four people. Similar free and reduced admission is available to eligible members of the public at more than 500 museums across the country. Museums for All is part of the Susquehanna Art Museum’s broad commitment to seek, include, and welcome all audiences.

Museums for All helps expand access to museums and raise public awareness about how museums in the U.S. are reaching their entire communities. More than 500 institutions participate in the initiative, including art museums, children’s museums, science centers, botanical gardens, zoos, history museums, and more. Participating museums are located nationwide, representing 48 states.

About the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS)

The Institute of Museum and Library Services is the primary source of federal support for the nation’s 123,000 libraries and 35,000 museums. Its mission is to inspire libraries and museums to advance innovation, lifelong learning, and cultural and civic engagement. To learn more, visit www.ims.gov and follow us on Facebook and Twitter.

About Susquehanna Art Museum

For more than 30 years, Susquehanna Art Museum has enabled people to experience creativity and explore meaning through the visual arts. Its ever-changing galleries feature the work of local, national, and international artists, with exhibitions that reflect a wide range of aesthetic interests. Educational programs give both adults and children the chance to learn from original works of art in a museum setting and to explore their own artistic abilities.

About Association of Children’s Museums (ACM)

The Association of Children’s Museums (ACM) champions children’s museums worldwide. With more than 400 members in 48 states and 20 countries, ACM leverages the collective knowledge of children’s museums through convening, sharing, and dissemination. Learn more at www.childrensmuseums.org.

Susquehanna Art Museum is located at 1401 N. 3rd Street, Harrisburg, PA 17102.

Free parking is available to museum visitors in the lot behind the Museum at Calder and James Streets.
