To the Friends of the Susquehanna Art Museum,

I am truly sorry that I cannot be with you in Harrisburg today but I wanted to take the opportunity to congratulate everyone involved in this project—the board and staff of the museum, its supporters and contributors and the government officials who all helped to make this a reality.

As Governor, I was happy to put state funding into a project that I believed was essential for our Commonwealth and more specifically, for our capital city. The Museum will be a great place for citizens of the Commonwealth to visit and see not only its own collection, but some of the works that will be on loan from the great art institutions that we are lucky enough to have throughout the Commonwealth.

Again, congratulations to all!

Sincerely,

Edward G. Rendell
